

Community Christmas - Programme
at the Pitt Rivers and the Oxford University Museum of Natural History
Friday 27th November 6.00 – 9.00pm
FREE ADMISION

Pitt Rivers Museum - World Music and storytelling

- | | | |
|------|--------------------|---|
| 6.00 | Lantern procession | Led by Oxford Corunna Band |
| 6.15 | The Balcony - | Doug Langley and Noel Loble, traditional Zimbabwean Shona mbira music. |
| 6.30 | Lecture theatre | Finlay Cowan, Storytelling: The Pitt Rivers mice plan their Christmas Party ... Suitable for all ages |
| 7.00 | The Balcony | Adam Etinson and Faith Elliott, Balkan-influenced fiddle and accordion improvisations |
| 7.15 | Lecture theatre | Story telling (as before) |
| 7.45 | The Balcony | Oxford Area Northumbrian Pipers, traditional and festive tunes. |
| 8.00 | Lecture theatre | Story telling (as before) |
| 8.30 | The Balcony | Vijay Jagtap and Caroline Tapp, North Indian Classical music (sitar and tabla) |

University Museum of Natural History - Jazz and traditional music

- | | |
|------|--|
| 6.15 | Lantern procession led by Oxford Corunna Band |
| 7.00 | Jazznosis Melodic jazz Contemporary, Latin, Funk & Standards. |
| 7.30 | Horns of Plenty |
| 8.00 | The Oxford Waits, street ballads, dance tunes, airs and rounds as well as readings from diarists and poets |
| 8.30 | Oxford Corunna Marching Band |

There will also be family activities, refreshments, and for 1 night only 10% off everything in the Museum Shops! Unique fairtrade jewelry, gifts, books and more.

