

Museum of Natural History

MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY CLIMATE JUSTICE MUSEUM LATE NIGHT

Event Map

MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY CLIMATE JUSTICE MUSEUM LATE NIGHT

Timetable of Events

1

Climate Café First Floor Gallery Cafe

Visit the climate café to sample an excellent menu of Michelin star climate research, then digest with activities focused on climate emotions with the Oxford Climate Society. The café will remain open all evening for your intellectual degustation.

2

Talks, Film, and Poetry Main Lecture Theatre

7:15-8pm KEYNOTE TALK Professor Friederike Otto, pioneer in the field of climate attribution science, presents her new book, Climate Injustice

8:10-8:40 FILM and POETRY researcher Akosua Paries-Osei and her film Seditious Seeds of Forbidden Flowers in conversation with Yvonne John, Writer, Public Speaker “The Echoes of (M)otherhood” exploring seed justice, infertility and indigenous plant knowledge in the context of slavery.

8:45-9 POETRY read by Zoe Brown, a geography researcher and poet

9-9:20 SPOKEN WORD by local poet Andrew AJ Jones

9:20-9:35 SPOKEN WORD by local poet Rawz

9:35-9:55 SONGS from Climate Theatre Show Chrissie and the Skiddle Witch by Geologise Theatre

3

Water Conservation Stalls Central Court

7:00-7:35pm a PARADE of Grandfather Thames and the Oxford Climate Choir will open the freshwater conservation area in the central court. Installed for the duration of the evening, visit stalls by local water conservation groups:

EarthWatch Oxford,

River Action,

Friends of the Thames,

Floodplain Meadow Restoration Project (Long Mead Foundation)

Film Marginalia | song to the river by Bevis Bowden

Tamesis Unweaving workshop

and try on the Thames Robe by Museum of Climate Hope artist Anya Gleizer

MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY CLIMATE JUSTICE MUSEUM LATE NIGHT

Timetable of Events

4

Climate Crafts Right Court

Researcher Linda Wystemp knits Climate Stripes and discusses climate justice and green criminology
Knit and Natter - Researchers Sam Hampton and Tina Fawcett share an activity on Climate Leadership

5

Local Initiatives Westwood Room

Find out about local Oxfordshire green initiatives! You can visit:

Low Carbon Oxford

The Cherwell Collective

One Planet Abingdon

Hogacre Ecopark

And work with local artist, Helen Edwards, on art therapy addressing eco-anxiety

6

Workshop: Deep Sea Empathy Seminar Room

Noemi Duroux presents the workshop: Be a Deep-Sea Citizen Scientist

7

Climate Games and Crafts Left Court

Robin Hutchinson of CEH and the importance of long-term monitoring of insects and climate change

Extinction Kerplunk - researcher Leonie Biggenden leads a high stakes game

Water contamination and coral reefs model

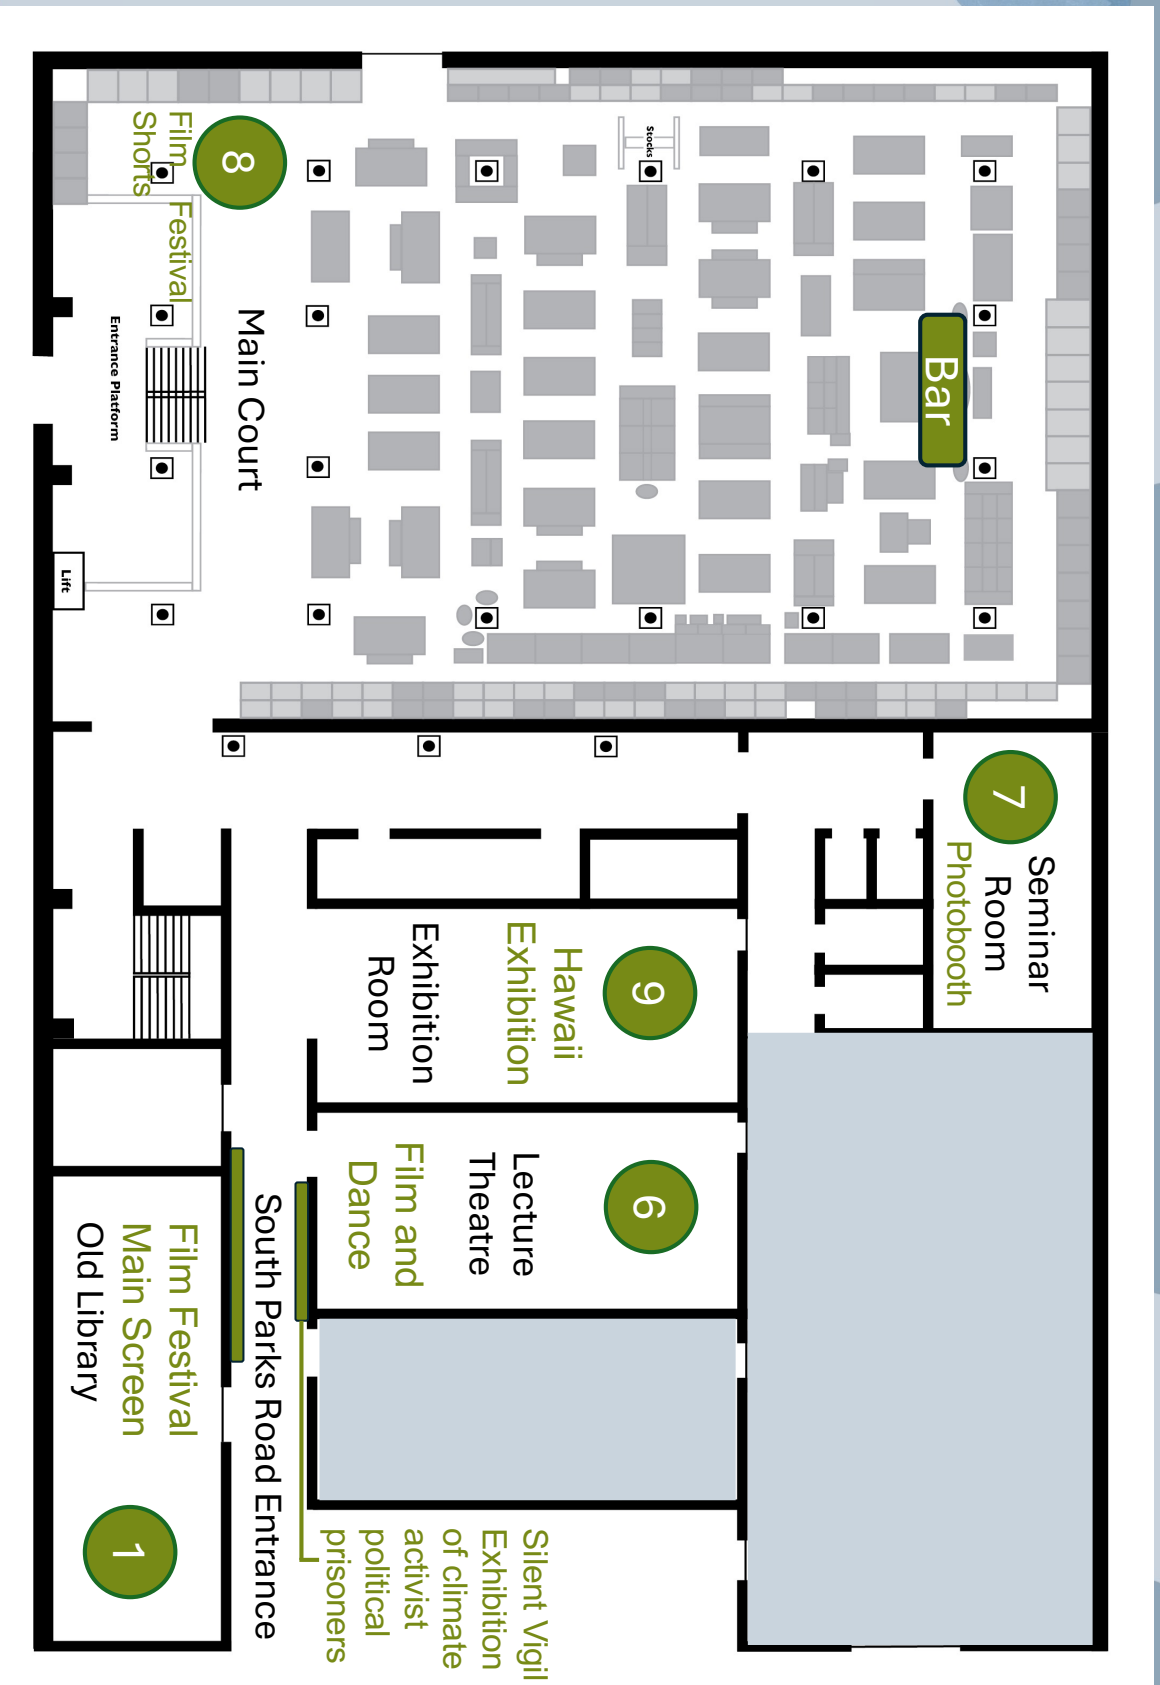

It's a buzzing problem! - Eliza Mogollon Perez shares her research (and a box of wasps!) looking at climate's effect on insects.

8

Museum Tours Central Court meeting point (under Iguanodon)

8pm-9pm Uncomfortable Oxford
Unnatural Histories tour.

8:30pm-9:15pm Museum of
Climate Hope tour

PITT RIVERS MUSEUM
CLIMATE JUSTICE MUSEUM LATE NIGHT

Event Map: GROUND FLOOR

CLIMATE JUSTICE MUSEUM LATE NIGHT

PITT RIVERS MUSEUM

Event Map: First and Second Floor Galleries

PITT RIVERS MUSEUM CLIMATE JUSTICE MUSEUM LATE NIGHT

Timetable of Events

1

Film Festival Main Screen Old Library

7:15pm-8:30pm Screening of Itu Ninu by film-maker Itandehui Jansen

8:40-10pm In Our Own Words : Screening of Climate Criminals? by CHANGE Festival, followed by a discussion with activists on radical climate direct action *Pre-book ONLY Eventbrite: <https://shorturl.at/xtfq3> Tickets free but limited. Please attend for duration of event – no walk ins

2

Keynote and Silent Vigil Clore Balcony First Floor

7pm-8:30pm Silent Vigil of the Free Political Prisoners campaign for imprisoned climate activists and land-defenders world-wide. *The Exhibition of the Silent Vigil will be up in the PRM corridor all night.

8:40-9:30pm Film-maker behind Itu Ninu, Itandehui Jansen, speaks to Abdul Wahid Khan about sustainability, migration and the surveillance state.

3

Young Lives Second floor gallery and ceiling

An international study of poverty and inequality, Young Lives is investigating the impact of the climate crisis in the Global South. Young Lives photographs will be projected throughout the night onto the PRM ceiling

4

Photo projection ceiling

Photography exhibition by RHRN Photography4Humanity: A lens on Climate Justice and 'Impact and Resilience: experiencing the climate crisis in the Global South' photos from the Young Lives research study.

5

Witness Stand Sound Shower and Screen First Floor

Listen to the witness testimonies of the effects of climate change on island nations, from the South Pacific collective Witness Stand, who brought their testimonies before the ICJ. Watch their short film What is Owed, on the totem screen nearby.

PITT RIVERS MUSEUM

CLIMATE JUSTICE MUSEUM LATE NIGHT

Timetable of Events

6

Film and Song

Lecture Theatre

7pm-9pm Film from Court of Intergenerational Climate Crimes: The British East India Company on Trial, by Dutch artist and propaganda researcher Jonas Staal and Indian activist and lawyer Radha D'Souza. Commissioned by Serpentine, London and in collaboration with Framer Framed, Amsterdam, CREAM and Centre for Law, Development and Conflict Studies (University of Westminster). CICC puts the British East India Company on trial for crimes against lives, landscapes and livelihoods in the past, present and future. The hearings took place on 4-6 April 2025 at Ambika P3, London. (Film on loop)

9pm-10pm Noha Al Maghafi, a.k.a. singer-songwriter Intibint, shares covers and original songs from Yemen, Palestine and Sudan.

7

Multaka Oxford Photo Booth

Seminar Room

Multaka Youth Club and Fusion Arts join forces to create a photobooth opportunity as part of their greater local green spaces photography project

8

Film Festival Shorts

Main court, ground floor

Short film submissions to the Climate Justice Late Night film festival will be shown on loop on a screen in the main court. These include:

The Tapestry of Hope by Tamarack Media

Woven Together by ClimArts

Come Gleaning by Empathy Media

Letters from the Future by Tamarack Media

9

Hawaii Exhibition

Exhibition room

Explore Hawaiian Traditional Ecological Knowledge and how people preserve the earth through preserving culture and sustainable practice. Curated by Dr Marenka Thompson-Odlum