Information for Taught Museum Session:

Masks

Consider why people wear masks and how they are used in celebrations, performances or ceremonies. Look at how character can be expressed by handling masks, investigating the Museum collection and drawing a mask.

Hands-on Workshop

Key stage 1 and 2

Learning Outcomes

Aims

- Understand why people wear masks in Britain and around the world
- Explore how character of a mask can be shaped by colour, material, shape and pattern
- Support the development of pupil observation and drawing skill

Key concepts

- Difference between pretend and protection masks
- Masks worn for celebration, performance and ceremony
- Creation of mood in a mask

Session Outline

- Welcome to the Museum

“I was very impressed with the workshop, all children were extremely enthusiastic and fully involved in the sessions.” (Yr 3 teacher)

“Your Museum is cool!” (Yr 5 pupil)
Pre-visit activities

- Discuss why people wear masks.
- Ask pupils to bring in masks which they or their family have worn.

Post-visit activities

- Research local, national and international festivals, such as the Lord Mayor’s Parade, Notting Hill Carnival and the Chinese New Year.
- Make a mask. Collect stuff from home and outside to decorate the mask with such as cut up plastic bags, leaves, twigs or wool to create hair.
- Make a mask of yourself or someone you know. What colours represent them? What mood are they going to be in?
